KIWI Communications, Inc., a Marketing and Advertising Firm, Celebrates Ten-Year Milestone

KIWI Communications, Inc., a marketing and advertising firm, based in Orange County, CA, is celebrating its 10th year in business helping clients promote their products and services through various marketing channels including social media marketing.

Newport Beach, CA (September 1, 2009) — KIWI Communications, Inc., a marketing and advertising company, based in Southern California, is celebrating its ten-year anniversary during the month of September. KIWI Communications, Inc. opened its doors on September 1, 1999 with its first client RNA^ture, Inc., a start-up biotech company. Now, with many clients under its belt and over 500 projects completed, KIWI Communications is celebrating its tenth year of providing clients with stellar marketing and advertising services. They plan to celebrate the entire month of September with several events to showcase their work.

“We started with just one client and now have worked with many different clients in the life science, biotechnology, industrial, and non-profit sectors. From humble beginnings we have been able to grow our business by keeping abreast of the newest marketing technologies such as social media marketing,” says S. T. Brann, President of KIWI Communications, Inc. “Our philosophy is simple ... we develop powerful marketing messages for our clients and implement them consistently and cost effectively. This allows our clients to achieve a higher level of success with their marketing campaigns. We customize our marketing services for each client depending upon their individual needs; thus, our clients get the ultimate in personalized service.”

S. T. Brann, the Founder and President of KIWI Communications, has over 20 years of business-to-business marketing experience. She started her career in the oil industry and worked for a non-profit trade association where she learned about public relations, public affairs, and governmental affairs. She attained a Master of Business Administration degree in 1986. In 1988 she moved from Houston, TX to Orange County, CA and worked with Beckman Coulter, a manufacturer of life science instrumentation, as a marketing professional. In 1999 she started KIWI Communications, Inc. out of a need to make a greater impact in the marketing field. She is available to speak at business and professional group events. She is a member of the:

- Business Marketing Association SoCal Chapter,
- eMarketing Association Network,
- Online Advertising Professionals,
- The Life Science Executive Exchange, and
- Biotech & Pharma Professionals Network.
